THE EMPEROR TO DEFINE HIS FOREIGN POLICY.

PARIS, France, March 29.

It is understood that the Emperor Napoleon is engaged in preparing an important manifesto in regard to the foreign policy of his government. The document is expected to appear about the 12th proximo.

It is estimated by the Minister of War, Marshal Niel, that since the new army law has been put into operation, the Garde Mobile of France has been increased to 500,000.

THE GUBERNATORIAL NOMINATION.

Letter from General Palmer.

From the Monmouth (Ill.) Atlas, March 27.

We made some statements in our last issue in relation to a certain letter from General Palmer, in reply to one addressed to him from this city, respecting his position as a candidate for Governor. We did not feel authorized to publish that communication without the permission of General Palmer, and as we now have his consent, we place it before our readers:

SPRINGFIELD, March 10, 1868.

GENTS: I have to acknowledge the receipt of your favor of the 6th instant, and to thank you for the kind feelings you express. I really appreciate that you think I might by my ability to be useful to the Republican party as a candidate at the next election.

Until quite lately I expected to ask of the State Convention a nomination as a candidate for Governor, and my purposes were changed only by the consideration to which you allude—the peculiar state of the health of one of my children—which it is now expected will require to be [illegible]

A devastating conflagration involving an estimated total loss of about $175,000, visited the city at two o'clock yesterday morning. The extensive linseed oil works of Messrs. Gould Bros., which were situated on the river bank and facing on Charles street, between Van Buren and Harrison streets, West Division, by this destructive visitation were rendered a mass of smouldering ruins, and scarcely any property of value contained in the buildings was saved.
